

Tamim Rahman is a second year DPM candidate at New York College of Podiatric Medicine. He currently serves as the President-elect for the American Society of Podiatric Surgeons Club (ASPS), Student Peer-Reviewer for the Podiatric Medical Review Journal, Research Coordinator for the Diabetes & Wound Care Club, Class Representative of the Asian American Podiatric Association, Student Ambassador, and Peer-Mentor for current students. In the future, Tamim aims to serve underserved communities in New York City and hopes to help people get back on their feet!